How do Christians Remember and Why?

- When Christians see a cross it reminds them of Jesus giving up his life for them
- By telling parables Christians learn lessons from Jesus and his friends (his disciples).
- In prayer and services, Christians remember Jesus.

What do Humanists Believe?

- Humanists do not believe in a god.
- Humanists believe that people have one life to live so they focus on being happy and mak-ing the most of their life.
- They also believe they have a duty to support others.
- Humanists follow Science and they remember people who have served others and discov-ered ways to improve the world and people who were good to others.

Who do Christians Remember?

- Christians remember Jesus because they believe he was the son of God and died so others could live and follow his path of goodness.
- Christians remember his teachings to his friends (disciples).
- Christians also remember peo-ple called Saints who did good things, for exam-ple St Mother Theresa and St George.
