

Nursery - Summer 1.

Traditional Tales

Children will learn to:

- Listen to the story being read.
- Talk about the characters and events in the story.

Children will be able to:

- Recall what happens in the story, in the correct sequence.
- Use the correct vocabulary to retell the story.

Traditional tales help to spark our imagination. They help us to learn from the mistakes of characters in the stories and to think about what we might do in that situation.

Traditional tales help us to remember sequences of events.

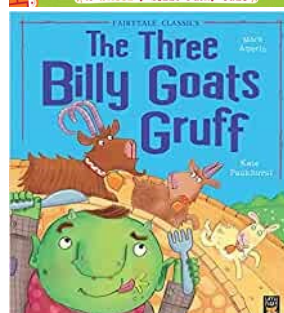

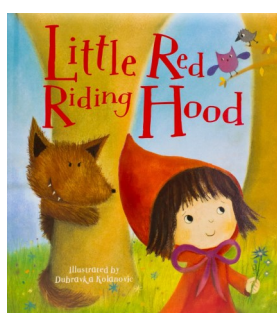

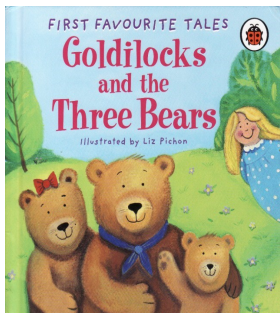

We are introduced to different cultures and different ways of living through these stories.

Listening skills are enhanced because they are repetitive.

The help us to develop our memory skills.
